MOSHER WARNS OF LATE BLIGHT SITUATION ON POTATOES

"Explosive" is the way Paul Mosher, Maine Extension crops specialist, last week termed the late blight situation on potatoes in Maine. He said conditions have been ideal for the development of light blight spores. He advised treating potato plants with fungicides every five days until top-killing. Also, potato growers who want to keep their tubers from sprouting in storage and who are not raising seed should apply malec hydraxide to potato plants three to four weeks before top-killing.

Ossipee, N. H.; Mrs Ernest Dalton, Bridgton; and Mrs Irene Hutchinson, Bethel.

Mr and Mrs John Spinney and Mrs Anne Bumpus called at Hugh Stearns', Saturday evening.

Ralph Hall from Boston and Bethel, was a Sunday caller at John Spinney's.

SUNDAY RIVER

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corres.

Harry Howe had his grandson, David, with him at Ketchum for a few days last week from Bryant Pond.

Mr and Mrs Floyd Verrill and friends from Concord, Mass., are at their cottage.

Benton Swan has a truck. Our Sunday school will be Sept. 2nd at 9:30 and it is hoped that all will be present. Our story papers are piling up and need some one to read them.

Traffic has been going over the new bridge between John Nowlin's and R. M. Bean's for most a week.

Mrs Marion Kimball attended the freer training class at Bethel last week.

Two kittens have been traffic victims recently on this road. We hope that with all the heavy trucks that no more will come to grief. A dog is reported recovering from being hit.

BEAR RIVER GRANGE

Saturday night, Aug. 25, was "Gentlemen's Nite" at Bear River Grange in charge of Clayton Blake, and while it was sort of a flop it was not Clayton's fault. His male companions just let him down. You plan on brothers and sisters to help and then at 4 p. m. they say "I can't." It don't give a guy a very big lift. But any way we met and some of the sisters kindly consented to be brothers and take an office so the chairs were filled as follows: M. Edward Bennett; O. Fred Wight; Chap. Carrie Wight; Treas. missing; Secretary, Ida Wight; Lecturer, Clayton Blake; Stew. Earl Hutchinson; Gatekeeper, Eva Yates; Asst. Steward, James Lassiter; L.A.S., Rosaline Lassiter; Corres. Russell Yates; Pomona, Joe Merrill; Flora, Gerthe Bartlett and per usual, Hattie Hutchinson, did the piano work. One name was read for membership. It was voted to accept the invitation from Pilot Grange and all go that could. There was one visitor from Oakland Grange. The program was as follows: Songs by two brothers (?); Reading by Russell Yates with encore; Pictures were shown by E. L. Holt taken in the west. We enjoyed these extra well because he took time out to give us "facts and figures" of the different ones. That's what makes pictures interesting. Another thing we enjoyed was having sister Gwendolin Holt with us—she has not been to grange for a long time, and it will be some time before she comes again as she is leaving home Aug. 28 for Hull, Wyo., where she will teach a school of three boys for the coming school year. We found our hall all clean and shining after loaning the use of it to the Newry Church Circle. Thanks heaps gals! Next meeting will be Sept. 8. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, cookies, and coffee such as only Fred Wight knows how to brew, was served after the meeting.—Eva Yates.
